FOCUS LILLE

➤ LILLE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

Lille Catholic University was founded in 1875. It is France's largest private university with 36.700 students in 5 Faculties and 25 schools and institutes. Students benefit from quality resources (libraries, halls of residence, a sports complex, health services...) and academic excellence. The historic campus is in the heart of Lille (France's 4th largest city, 2nd after Paris for the number of headquarters of company, and ranked the 4th tourist destination in the country). It is at the crossroads of Northern Europe and less than 300 kilometers from Paris, London, Brussels, Amsterdam and Cologne. The University offers a variety of degree programs taught totally in English. The International Management Master's degree program is fully taught in English.

LILLE DISTRICTS

LE VIEUX LILLE (OLD TOWN)

- Remarkably restored, the old town enchants the eye with its flamboyant architecture. The extraordinaire diversity of the 17th century streets is an invitation to a walk; so look up to appreciate the perfect harmony of brick and stone. The "Vieux Lille" is a must for those who love architecture. The beautiful Cathedral Notre Dame de-la-Treille and the Hospice Comtesse museum are another attractive venues for your history lovers.

LE CENTRE DE LILLE (LILLE CITY CENTER)

Start your visit of this part of Lille by going to "la Grand' Place". This square is surrounded by numerous interesting buildings and gives a fascinating introduction to the architecture of the town. The highlight of every visit of Lille City Center is la Vieille Bourse (old exchange market), a 17th century building with a large courtyard where you can meet the booksellers and tango dancers. The opera House and the 15th century Palais Rihour (where you will find Lille tourist office) are also worth visiting.

LE QUARTIER VAUBAN

Lille Vauban district, is the main student neighborhood of Lille with over 30,000 of them studying on the Catholic University of Lille Campus. Another must see of this part of the city is la Citadelle, an interesting example of defensive military architecture, built by Vauban, a famous French military architect.

In the same area you can also visit a zoo and a lovely park (Vauban). Nearby the Campus is a "Massena / Solférino" district where you will find countless bars, nightclubs, and restaurants including small delicious kebab stands that are open really late (till morning).
